

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

10 October 2020

Amos C (SH, UVI)

For his impressive contributions to live and pre-recorded footage for Hong Kong prospective parents

Eustacia F (M, LVI)

For enterprise and exemplary creativity during the Creative Writing Society which has led to work being long-listed for the prestigious BBC Young Writer's Award 2020

Arthur H B (I, V)

For his contributions to Chapel music with individual performances during midweek chapel and a recording for the Sunday morning Chapel podcast

Tim M (SH, V)

For his achievement in winning the J17 Eights event at the Swiss Rowing Championships in Luzern as part of the Seeclub Zurich crew

Dominic M (Rb, LVI)

For great enthusiasm and engagement on the ILM Management Club course, and also for innovative ideas for the delivery of mentoring in the wider school

Ruby R (MSH, UVI)

For her work on the production of the first 'Shrewsbury Economists' magazine

Martha S (M, LVI)

For her tremendously hard work in every session for the Hunt so far, and for being a great role model for the younger girls in the club

Milton T (SH, UVI)

For his work on the production of the first 'Shrewsbury Economists' magazine

Kira W (M, UVI)

For her achievement in gaining a choral award to St Edmund's Hall, Oxford

Abigail W (M, V)

For her impressive contributions to live and pre-recorded footage for Hong Kong prospective parents

Floreat flōrat (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish