

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

20 March 2021

Issy H (MSH, IV)

For her endeavours in completing the 122-mile South Shropshire Way raising funds for the TASC in the process

Bill H (Rt, V)

For his consistent engagement and commitment to training with the RSSBC during the lockdown period, and his strong example to others

Thea H (MSH, LVI)

For outstanding service as a Darwin President in compiling and editing the school student STEM Magazine

James K (Ch, V)

For his continued dedication and enthusiasm for dance both in remote and on campus

John L (R, III)

For his commitment to choral singing both during the period of remote learning and throughout the year

Oliver T (Rt, V)

For his consistent engagement and commitment to training with the RSSBC during the lockdown period, and his strong example to others

Fred T (I, UVI)

For his dedication to rowing training and impressive leadership during the lockdown period

Bubbles W (MSH, LVI)

For her unrelentingly positive engagement with music lessons and rehearsals whilst dealing with the time difference and distance

Floreat floreat (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish