

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

24 April 2020

A Biggs (PH, LVI)

For his energy and creative ideas in for setting up a House-based charity challenge for the summer term raising funds for Medic Malawi

A Garrett (Ch, UVI)

For capturing the nation's imagination in a Twitter post marking what would have been the start of the summer cricket season

G Holliday (I, III)

For showing extraordinary levels of self-motivation and careful attention to detail into the remote period. His constant enthusiasm, willingness to volunteer and inability to accept anything that is not the highest calibre in his output make him a thoroughly impressive Salopian.

A Tonks (MSH, UVI)

For her creativity in creating and performing a piece of sublime dance entitled 'The Door Slam Heard Around the World'

G Yuen (SH, IV)

For his dedication to the academic programme, attending his first day of lessons whilst recovering in hospital

L Williams (SH, III)

For unfailing positivity and a determination to maintain the very highest standards of academic learning in every aspect of his work despite the current adverse conditions.

Floreat flōrītāt (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish