

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

28 May 2021

Hattie A (G, IV)

For overcoming anxiety after sailing in windy weather a couple of weeks earlier (...when the boom caught her on the head) to get back in a boat on Field Day and steer it calmly downwind under jib, in gusts over 30 knots

Amelia B (M, LVI)

For her fantastic effort spending many hours preparing, then delivering an excellent charity bake sale, raising over £80 for Young Minds Trust

Dulcie B (M, LVI)

For her fantastic effort spending many hours preparing, then delivering an excellent charity bake sale, raising over £80 for Young Minds Trust

Eloise B (M, LVI)

For her fantastic effort spending many hours preparing, then delivering an excellent charity bake sale, raising over £80 for Young Minds Trust

Clara G (G, III)

For her charitable work raising funds for the Little Princess Charity making personal sacrifices to support their work

Daniel M (O, III)

For his unwavering commitment and steadfast dedication to choral music at Shrewsbury, particularly in Chamber Choir; his joining half-way through the academic year and willing to get completely stuck in!

Rowan R (Rt, III)

For maintaining consistent high academic standards in the English classroom, in Top Schools and in remote

Natalia T (EDH, IV)

For showing consistent determination to practise and progress using time before and after school

Sophia U (EDH, V)

For her impressive progress over the last year culminating in a top 10 placing in the national KHVIII virtual relays

Floreat floreat (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish