

---

Floreat

Celebrating the effort, endeavour and enterprise of Salopians

---

30 April 2021

Jasmine C (MSH, III)

For her superlative work in the Humanities both during the remote learning period and now that she is back in the classroom

Eustacia F (M, LVI)

For competing in an international maths Competition (Purple Comet) finishing as the top team in the UK and 109 out of over 800 teams worldwide, a remarkable achievement against very strong opposition

Joss G (S, V)

For excellent public spirit, taking the lead in developing a project to create ready meals for the Foodbank

Jack H (Rt, IV)

For his rare achievement of scoring a century for the 1st XI against Warwickshire, a remarkable achievement for someone so young

Ed P (R, V)

For excellent public spirit, taking the lead in developing a project to create ready meals for the Foodbank

Archie T (Rt, IV)

For his impressive victory in the pony European Selection Trials at Weston Park Horse Trials

Yuhan W (MSH, LVI)

For competing in an international maths Competition (Purple Comet) finishing as the top team in the UK and 109 out of over 800 teams worldwide, a remarkable achievement against very strong opposition

Ivan Y (SH, UVI)

For competing in an international maths Competition (Purple Comet) finishing as the top team in the UK and 109 out of over 800 teams worldwide, a remarkable achievement against very strong opposition

Floreat floreat (exclamation) used before a name to express one's wish that the specified institution or person will flourish