

Shrewsbury School

SHREWSBURY SCHOOL

SIXTH FORM ENTRANCE EXAMINATION 2016

PHILOSOPHY AND THEOLOGY

(1 Hour)

Instructions to candidates:

Answer TWO essays.

Each essay is worth 20 marks.

Answer on lined paper.

1. 'Sacred texts are the words of man rather than the Word of God.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

2. 'Jesus was unique.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

3. 'Christianity has changed for the better.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

4. 'Religion has no relevance in modern ethical issues.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

5. 'Religious experiences are generally delusions.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

6. 'Religious faith should be personal not social.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

7. 'There is truth in all faiths.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.

8. 'True religion is feeding the hungry and helping the sick.'
Do you agree? Give reasons for your answer and show that you are aware of different points of view.